(2) The compliance officer shall immediately and independently report to the Board any non-compliance observed by him.]

Information to the Board.

20. (1) The Board may, at any time, call for any information from a custodian of securities with respect to any matter relating to its activity as custodian of securities.

(2) Where any information is called for by the Board under sub-regulation (1), it shall be the duty of the custodian of securities to furnish such information within such reasonable period as the Board may specify.

CHAPTER IV INSPECTION AND AUDIT

Board's right to inspect.

21. (1) The Board may appoint one or more persons as inspecting officer to undertake inspection of the books of account, records and documents of the custodian of securities for any of the following purposes, namely:—

(a) to ensure that the books of account, records and documents are being maintained by the custodian of securities in the manner specified in these regulations;

(b) to investigate into complaints received from investors, clients or any other person, on any matter having a bearing on the activities of the custodian of securities;

(c) to ascertain whether the provisions of the Act and these regulations are being complied with by the custodian of securities; and

(d) to investigate suomotu into the affairs of the custodian of securities in the interest of the securities market or in the interest of investors.

Notice before inspection.

22. (1) Before ordering an inspection under regulation 21 the Board shall give not less than ten days notice to the custodian of securities.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-regulation (1), where the Board is satisfied that in the interest of the investors no such notice should be given, it may by an order in writing direct that the inspection of the affairs of the custodian of securities be taken up without such notice.

(3) During the course of an inspection, the custodian of securities against whom the inspection is being carried out shall be bound to discharge his obligations as provided in regulation 23.

Obligations of custodian on inspection by the Board.

23. (1) It shall be the duty of the custodian of securities whose affairs are being inspected, and of every director, officer and employee thereof to produce to the inspecting officer such books, securities, accounts, records and other documents in its custody or control and furnish him with such statements and information relating to his activities of the custodian of securities, as the inspecting officer may require, within such reasonable period as the inspecting officer may specify.

(2) The custodian of securities shall allow the inspecting officer to have reasonable access to the premises occupied by such custodian or by any other person on his behalf and also extend reasonable facility for examining any books, records, documents and computer data in the possession of the custodian of securities or such other person and also provide copies of documents or other materials which in the opinion of the inspecting officer are relevant for the purposes of the inspection.

(3) The inspecting officer, in the course of inspection, shall be entitled to examine or to record the statements of any director, officer or employee of the custodian of securities.

(4) It shall be the duty of every director, officer or employee of the custodian of securities to give to the inspecting officer all assistance in connection with the inspection, which the inspecting officer may reasonably require.

Submission of report to the Board.

24. The inspecting officer shall, as soon as possible, on completion of the inspection submit an inspection report to the Board:

Provided that if directed to do so by the Board, he may submit an interim report.

¹⁹[Action on inspection or investigation report.
